

Dante's Inferno, Cantos 18, 20-22

Asking Questions that Matter

Close Reading and Critical Thinking

Directions: You will be divided into four groups. Each group will study ONE canto. For the canto assigned, identify Dante's purpose and overall message (theme), and then consider the ways in which his purpose and message are conveyed through content, structure, and literary devices.

In your groups, write questions that invite interpretation, inferencing, evaluation, synthesis, and multiple responses. Do not ask "reading quiz" questions! I will compile each class' questions and each group will lead seminar over YOUR canto's questions in seminar Monday.

You must write four (4) questions and their answers, as well as one (1) additional question for further study and/or a question about something you want to know or about which you are confused. You will only turn in a group copy, but everyone should have the questions and the answers written down. Group members do NOT need to staple their notes to the group copy.

Write your questions in the following three categories. You may use the stems provided but you are not required to do so. Be sure your questions are ones that engage critical analysis!
