

Create a multimedia summary of your novel and provide thematic analysis. Use the questions you identified in your QFTs to focus your project.

You will work with the same group with whom you created your QFT.

Your video or project may not be longer than 5 minutes. We will begin viewing your final project Friday, March 25th:

You may—

- Make a silent movie (no spoken dialogue) that narrates the events solely through music
- Make a movie trailer at least 2 minutes in duration
- Film a “hard-hitting” interview with a main character
- Create a 3-D popup book using ZooBurst (it’s free—go to <http://www.zooburst.com>)
- Video a CLEAN version of ThugNotes
- Write a Shmoop review

Other ideas? Clear them through me first. You can email me your ideas or use Remind 101 to chat.

Work productively, especially if you won’t see your peeps over Spring Break.
